

Name:

Year and Section:

System Title:

Date

Criteria	Excellent (10 pts)	Good (7–9 pts)	Fair (4–6 pts)	Poor (1–3 pts)	Weight
Functionality	Fully functional system; all features work as intended with no bugs	Most features work correctly; minor bugs present	Some core features are incomplete or buggy	Major features missing or system not working	25%
Code Quality & Structure	Clean, well-organized, follows Laravel best practices (MVC, Eloquent, etc.)	Mostly clean; few deviations from best practices	Code is somewhat disorganized; inconsistent structure	Poorly written code; does not follow best practices	20%
User Interface / UX	Intuitive, responsive, and visually appealing UI; good use of Bootstrap or Tailwind	UI is functional and mostly intuitive	UI is cluttered or lacks responsiveness	Poor UI; confusing or non-functional	15%
Database Design	Properly normalized database; appropriate use of relationships and migrations	Mostly normalized; relationships used correctly	Incomplete or suboptimal design	Poor design; lacks normalization or foreign key use	10%
Authentication & Security	Secure authentication; use of Laravel's built-in security features	Basic authentication; mostly secure	Minimal security; lacks proper role handling	No authentication or security measures	10%
Documentation	Complete and clear documentation (README, installation, usage)	Mostly complete documentation	Incomplete or vague documentation	No documentation provided	10%
Innovation / Extra Features	Adds innovative features beyond requirements; excellent use of Laravel packages	Some additional features implemented	Basic implementation only	No effort beyond minimum requirements	10%

Total :

Points

Signature:

Evaluator Name:

Position/Designation

Remarks: